

PORTER MEMORIAL LIBRARY CELEBRATES ITS 100th BIRTHDAY WITH 2012 MEET THE AUTHOR SERIES

March 14, 2012

Time: 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

CLAUDIA STERNBACH, beloved local columnist and author, presents her charming memoir READING LIPS: A Memoir of Kisses, revealing her life "one kiss at a time". It is a story that really touches your heart. To be able to recall your life based upon kisses is a wondrous thing!

This anthology of essays ranges from childhood memories to adult recollections. However no matter the age, a kiss is never just a kiss. We are reminded of this in each essay. The lasting importance of a kiss is celebrated and appreciated, as it should be.

Sometimes it is a kiss we needed. Sometimes it is a kiss that we never receive, that matters most to us. A kiss can be a beginning, or a final farewell. A kiss can comfort us, be a stabilizing force, or it may be something that simply keeps us going. Join us to learn more.

These programs are informal coffee hours where local authors discuss their works and answer questions from the audience. They are free of charge and open to the public. Coffee will be provided by The Ugly Mug. For further information call 475-3326
