

PORTER MEMORIAL LIBRARY CELEBRATES ITS 100th BIRTHDAY WITH 2012 MEET THE AUTHOR SERIES

January 11, 2012
Time: 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

JAMES IRWIN KRUGER, distinguished former newspaperman and author of 7 novels, says of himself, "After 42 years as an editor on newspapers from Minneapolis, MN to San Jose, CA I was afraid of retirement. So afraid in fact that I sought out a high tech company in Santa Cruz, CA, that hired retirees part time for assembly line work so I'd have a job in my post-retirement years. I adjusted to my new line of work, but something was missing—mainly excitement. I missed the pressures of the newsroom, the thrill of meeting deadlines, the camaraderie of fellow journalists. But most of all I missed my long-time romance with the written word.

That's when I began churning out novels, all kinds of novels, action/ adventure stories, murder mysteries, and historical novels including one romantic tale set in my favorite city, San Francisco." You can learn more about James at – www.jameskruger.com

These programs are informal coffee hours where local authors discuss their works and answer questions from the audience. They are free of charge and open to the public. Coffee will be provided by The Ugly Mug. For further information call 475-3326

We are located at 3050 Porter Street, Soquel. Parking is available behind the library. Enter from Soquel Drive into the Bagelry parking lot and drive through to the left.

Library Hours Monday-Friday 12 – 4 p.m. Saturday 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Find us on the web at – www.porterml.org